

CONTROL

33565

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

INTELLIGENCE REPORT

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

25X1A2g

COUNTRY China

DATE:

INFO. As Stated

SUBJECT Nationalist Order of Battle: Manchuria

DIST. 11 June 1947

25X1A6a

PAGES 5

25X1X6

ORIGIN

SUPPLEMENT

Huai-te -- Nung-an Sector

N 30 Division

14 April: Part of N 30 Div, with the 2 Cav Detachment in support, routed the Communist T 1 Bde at Yang-ta-cheng-chen (124-25, 43-58), forcing it to withdraw to Chang-ling (123-57, 44-15).

11 May: The regiment of N 30 Div stationed at Ha-la-hai (125-06, 44-40) was forced to withdraw on 10 May upon the movement there from Fu-yu of an unidentified Communist unit.

12 May: Assigned with 50 Div to check the Communist advance south from the Ta-lai -- Fu-yu sector.

13 May: Has set up two perimeters of defense for Nung-an (125-11, 44-26): the outer ring is five kilometers from the city, and the inner ring two kilometers.

50 Division

12 May: At Hsiao-ho-lung (125-09, 44-04). Assigned with N 30 Div to check the Communist advance south from the Ta-lai -- Fu-yu sector.

17 May: Made contact with elements of the Communist 1 and 2 Divs 20 kilometers east of Huai-te.

18 May: Huai-te fell on the night of 17 May. The 50, 88, and 91 Divs hold the line about 10 kilometers east of Huai-te. Because of Communist infiltration and successful harassing attacks, the NECC has ordered a Nationalist withdrawal to about 20 kilometers east of Huai-te to set up strong defensive positions and stop the Communist push to the east.

88 Division

9 April: Left Kai-yuan on 9 April to retake Kang-ping (123-20, 42-46), occupied by troops of the Inner Mongolian People's Self-Protection Army on 8 April.

Document No. 6

NO CHANGE in Class. ☒ CLASSIFICATION☐ DECLASSIFIED

Class. CHANGED TO: TS S C

DDA Memo, 4 Apr 77

Auth: DDA REG. 77/1763

Date: 17 April 78 By: 027

14 April: Div, plus a regiment of PPC troops, moved from Hou-hsin-chiu (122-14, 42-35) to Ha-la-chin-tun (122-59, 42-41).

16 April: Hq are now at Hsi-feng (124-11, 42-44). With 54 Div has dispatched troops to break up an attack on Yang-mu-lin-tzu by 4000 unidentified Communists.

17 April: The Communists attacking Yang-mu-lin-tzu have been driven back.

12 May: At Kung-chu-ling. Available for action in the Northwest.

15 May: The Nationalists will try to stop the Communist push at Huai-te by using the 88 Div from Kung-chu-ling and the 91 Div from Pa-mien-cheng.

16 May: The 88 and 91 Divs are now west of Kung-chu-ling and Fan-chia-tun. A coordinated drive to Huai-te is planned for 17 May.

18 May: Huai-te fell to the Communists on the night of 17 May. The 50, 88, and 91 Divs hold the line about 10 kilometers east of Huai-te. Because of Communist infiltration and successful harassing attacks, the NECC has ordered a Nationalist withdrawal to about 20 kilometers east of Huai-te to set up strong defensive positions and stop the Communist push to the east.

10 April: A regiment of 88 Div, plus 2000 PPC troops, are pursuing the Communist troops that occupied Kang-ping.

91 Division

15 May: The Nationalists will try to stop the Communist push at Huai-te by using the 88 Div from Kung-chu-ling and the 91 Div from Pa-mien-cheng.

16 May: The 88 and 91 Divs are now west of Kung-chu-ling and Fan-chia-tun. A coordinated drive to Huai-te is planned for 17 May.

17 May: Within 15 kilometers of Huai-te.

18 May: Huai-te fell to the Communists on the night of 17 May. The 50, 88, and 91 Divs hold the line about 10 kilometers east of Huai-te. Because of Communist infiltration and successful harassing attacks, the NECC has ordered a Nationalist withdrawal to about 20 kilometers east of Huai-te to set up strong defensive positions and stop the Communist push to the east.

2 Cavalry Detachment

14 April: Supported part of N 30 Div in routing the Communist T 1 Bde at Yang-ta-cheng-chen and forcing it to withdraw to Chang-ling.

18 April: Moving toward Fu-lung-chuan from Yang-ta-cheng-chen.

Kirin Sector

N 36 Division

12 May: At Kirin.

13 May: Responsible for the defense of the Kirin sector; is spread out from Kirin to Wu-la-chieh (126-27, 44-05).

Liao-yuan - Tung-liao Sector

87 Division

12 May: At Liao-yuan (123-30, 43-30) and Tung-liao (122-14, 43-38). Available for action in the Northwest.

14 May: Div is disposed as follows:

Hq - Liao-yuan Regt - between Shan-po-li (123-55, 43-50) and Shuang-ahan (123-56, 43-42) Regt - at Men-ta (123-07, 43-39)

Regt - at Tung-liao

~~CONFIDENTIAL - CONTINUED - OFFICIALS ONLY~~

Tung-hua - Hsin-pin - Kai-yuan - Tung-feng Sector

T 20 Division

15 April: At Ying-o-men.

16 April: Moving to assist PPC troops in Nan-shan-cheng-tzu, which are unable to defend the city against 2000 Communists.

4 May: The Nationalists are starting an offensive against 5000 Communists scattered from Hai-lung to Kai-yuan, and using a regiment N 6 Army Hq troops, a battalion of 10 Engr Regt, plus a regiment of T 20 Div, and a PPC regiment.

12 May: At Ying-o-men. Being used as a mobile reserve force which can be shipped by rail to any front necessary.

15 May: A regiment of T 20 Div and 65 Regt are to attack Nan-shan-cheng-tzu from the west.

17 May: The attack on Nan-shan-cheng-tzu was successful. A battalion of N 22 Div now holds that front.

18 May: The Nationalists were forced to withdraw from Nan-shan-cheng-tzu as the Communists have concentrated the 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 Brigades in that sector. Two regiments of T 20 Div, plus 64 and 65 Regts, are near Ying-o-men.

T 21 Division

28 April: At Hai-lung and Mei-ho-kou.

N 22 Division

9 April: At Chiu-men.

13 April: N 22 and 195 Divs are clearing out the area north of Tung-hua.

28 April: At Ching-yuan.

12 May: At Hsin-pin. Being used as a mobile reserve force which can be shipped by rail to any front necessary.

64 - 65 - 66 Regiments

14 May: The 64 and 65 Regts, 160 Regt, 10 Engr Regt, and part of 184 Div are being sent to try and stop a Communist drive on Pei-shan-cheng-chen and Tsao-shih.

15 May: Pei-shan-cheng-chen fell on 14 May. Nan-shan-cheng-tzu, now held by the Communist 10 Bde, is to be attacked by 64 Regt and 162 Regt from the south, and by 65 Regt and a regiment of T 20 Div from the west.

17 May: The attack on Nan-shan-cheng-tzu was successful. A battalion of N 22 Div now holds that front.

18 May: The Nationalists were forced to withdraw from Nan-shan-cheng-tzu as the Communists have concentrated the 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 Brigades in that sector. The 64 and 65 Regts, plus two regiments of T 20 Div, are near Ying-o-men, with 66 Regt a few kilometers to the southeast.

54 Division

16 April: With 88 Div has dispatched troops to break up an attack on Yang-mu-lin-tzu by 4000 unidentified Communists.

17 April: The Communists attacking Yang-mu-lin-tzu have been driven back.

6 May: A regiment of 54 Div, supported by troops of the 3 Peace Preservation Regional Hq, has surrounded Wei-ching (125-14, 42-48), following its occupation by Communists on 4 May.

7 May: Part of the Communist force at Wei-ching escaped to the south. The Nationalists have not yet entered the city.

12 May: At Tung-feng (125-31, 42-41). Being used as a mobile reserve force which can be shipped by rail to any front necessary.

160 - 161 - 162 Regiments

9 April: A regiment is at Ching-yuan.

14 May: The 160 Regt, 64 and 65 Regts, 10 Engr Regt, and part of 184 Div, are being sent to try and stop a Communist drive on Pei-shan-cheng-chen and Tsao-shih.

15 May: The 160 Regt and 10 Engr Regt are to attack the Communists near Tsao-shih. The 162 and 64 Regts are to attack Nan-shan-cheng-tzu from the south.

17 May: The attack on Nan-shan-cheng-tzu was successful. A battalion of N 22 Div now holds that front.

18 May: The Nationalists were forced to withdraw from Nan-shan-cheng-tzu as the Communists have concentrated the 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 Brigades in that sector.

184 Division

14 May: A regiment of 184 Div holds Pei-shan-cheng-chen, which was attacked by part of the 7 Bde of 3 Column on 13 May. Tsao-shih was also attacked. Part of 184 Div, 160 Regt, 64 and 65 Regts, and 10 Engr Regt are being sent to try and stop the drive.

15 May: Div is to remain at Mei-ho-kou.

195 Division

13 April: 195 and N 22 Divs are clearing out the area north of Tung-hua.

15 May: To push from Tung-hua north toward Hsiao-cheng-tzu (125-47, 42-03) as an harassing force, with no particular objective.

207 Division

15 April: At Yung-ling-chieh.

28 April: At Hung-miao-tzu (125-08, 41-31).

29 April: On 29 April, part of 207 Div, plus local PPC troops, was mopping up small Communist units within a triangle from Fu-shun to Hsin-pin to Huan-jen (125-21, 41-16).

3 May: About 2000 Communists have been trapped within the triangle (above) at Shih-jen-kou (124-32, 41-39).

12 May: At Yung-ling-chieh.

10 Engineer Regiment

4 May: The Nationalists are starting an offensive against 5000 Communists scattered from Hai-lung to Kai-yuan, and using a regiment of N 6 Army Hq troops, a battalion of 10 Engr Regt, plus a regiment of T 20 Div, and a PPC regiment.

14 May: The 10 Engr Regt, 64 and 65 Regts, 160 Regt, and part of 184 Div are being sent to try and stop a Communist drive on Pei-shan-cheng-chen and Tsao-shih.

15 May: 10 Engr Regt and 160 Regt are to attack the Communists near Tsao-shih.

Kuan-tien - Pen-chi-hu Sector

2 Division

9 April: Main force at Yung-ling-chieh, with part at Chiu-men (125-13, 41-41).

15 April: At Fu-shun.

28 April: At Feng-cheng (124-02, 40-28) for reorientation.

12 May: At Pen-chi-hu (123-43, 41-20).

25 Division

12 May: At Kuan-tien (124-46, 40-44).

Chin-chou - Cheng-te Sector

25X1A2g

13 Army

10 April: Hq has moved from Hsin-pin back to Cheng-te.

T 18 Division

23 April: Has made contact with isolated Communist groups west of Chin-chou (121-07, 41-07).

1 May: Ling-yuan (119-18, 41-14) was occupied by 3000 Communists on 1 May. A regiment of Nationalist PPC troops stationed there withdrew to the east. A regiment of T 18 Div at Chao-yang (120-26, 41-34) is to reinforce the PPC troops for a counterattack.

89 Division

15 April: En route to Cheng-te.

21 April: At Ping-chuan (118-35, 40-59) for reorganization and orientation.

8 April: A regiment is surrounded at Tiao-yu-tai (125-46, 42-01).

14 April: The regiment cut off at Tiao-yu-tai has been lost.

Independent 1 Cavalry Detachment

15 April: To reinforce PPC troops contacted by 2000 Communists at Sung-ling-men (120-42, 41-15).

* * * *

Coordinates not given in the text follow:

Cheng-te (117-52, 40-59)

Ching-yuan (124-55, 42-04)

Fan-chia-tun (125-04, 43-43)

Fu-lung-chuan (124-37, 44-23)

Fu-shun (123-54, 41-53)

Fu-yu (124-49, 45-11)

Hai-lung (125-48, 42-39)

Hsin-pin (125-01, 41-42)

Huai-te (124-46, 43-54)

Kai-yuan (124-01, 42-33)

Kung-chu-ling (124-50, 43-32)

Mei-ho-kou (125-41, 42-32)

Nan-shan-cheng-tzu (125-18, 45-07)

Pa-mien-cheng (124-03, 43-12)

Pei-shan-cheng-chen (125-25, 42-22)

Ta-lai (124-17, 45-28)

Tsao-shih (125-13, 42-18)

Tung-hua (125-57, 41-41)

Yang-mu-lin-tzu (125-10, 42-39)

Ying-o-men (125-06, 42-10)

Yung-ling-chieh (124-46, 41-42)

~~CONFIDENTIAL CONTROL U.S. EYES ONLY~~